

Establishment of Kerala Biodiversity park at Vallakkadavu

Client : Biodiversity Board

The proposed park is an ecological park that focuses on showcasing the diverse ecosystem and biodiversity of the State.

The park will feature several galleries that provide an overview of important ecological themes, such as ecologically important species, threatened species, tribes of the state, and the flora and fauna of the state.

